

Humana

Humana's Board of Directors has decided to withdraw the dividend proposal

Due to the current situation caused by the spread of Covid-19, the Board of Directors in Humana AB has decided to withdraw the dividend proposal to the Annual General Meeting to be held on May 7.

Humana has a very important role to play as a responsible care provider in the Nordic region and the Board of Directors in Humana believes that it is advisable to withdraw the dividend proposal in this uncertain time in order to further increase the company's scope for action and strengthen its financial endurance.

The proposed dividend, which has now been withdrawn, amounted to SEK 0.70 per share, a total of SEK 37 million. Humana's Annual General Meeting will take place on May 7 in Stockholm.

This information is information that Humana AB is obliged to make public pursuant to the EU Market Abuse Regulation. The information was submitted for publication, through the agency of the contact persons set out below, at 18:15 CET on 30 March 2020.

For more information, please contact:

Ulf Bonnevier, Vice President and CFO, +46 70 164 73 17, ulf.bonnevier@humana.se
Anna Sönne, Head of Investor Relations, +46 70 601 48 53, anna.sonne@humana.se

Humana is a leading Nordic care company providing services within individual and family care, personal assistance, elderly care and special service housing in accordance with LSS. Humana has 15,000 employees in Sweden, Norway, Finland and Denmark providing care for 9,000 individuals and working to achieve the vision "Everyone is entitled to a good life". In 2019, Humana's operating revenue was SEK 7,467m. Humana is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm and the company's headquarters are located in Stockholm. Read more about Humana on: www.humana.se or corporate.humana.se/en