Humana acquires Team J-son

Humana acquires the individual and family company Team J-son. The acquisition strengthens Humana as a provider of high-quality care services for children and youths with special needs in Sweden.

Team J-son is a Swedish family business, founded in 1971, which offers individualised solutions for children and youths, age 10-23, with special needs. The operation includes housing, a school and a health team. The company is based in Jönköping and welcomes clients on a national basis. The company's full-year revenue amounts to approximately SEK 90 million and the company has approximately 120 employees.

"Team J-Son runs a unique and high-quality operation and we are very happy to welcome the team to Humana. The company brings with it both a deep and broad knowledge and a solid experience, which will be very valuable in our future joint work", Johanna Rastad, Business Area Manager Individual & Family at Humana, said.

Humana has entered into an agreement to acquire all the shares in J-son Företagspartner AB. The transfer, which takes place with immediate effect, makes the business part of Humana's business area Individual & Family.

"Team J-son is a happy business, a spirit that can now grow further together with our new colleagues at Humana. Becoming part of Humana feels safe and joyful for the future and will bring new opportunities for development and collaboration for our employees and for the entire operation", Anna Maxe, CEO and owner of J-son Företagspartner together with David Jansson, said.
