CFO Noora Jayasekara leaves Humana

Noora Jayasekara leaves Humana after four years, including the last two years as CFO and member of Humana's Group Management.

The change in management that is now implemented is part of better adapting and developing the Group's support functions to the changing needs of the core business, which means that the CFO assignment will change.

Noora Jayasekara joined Humana in January 2018 as Group Finance Director. Two years later, she advanced to the position as CFO.

"During Noora's time at Humana, we have consolidated our position as one of the leading and fastest growing care providers in the Nordic region and she is a strong contributor to this. I wish her the best of luck in the future", says Johanna Rastad, Humana's President and CEO.

"It has been a privilege to participate in the development and management of Humana together with all fantastic employees. I leave with a confidence that Humana is equipped to face the future and to continue to deliver good care", says Noora Jayasekara.

The recruitment process of a successor will be initiated immediately.
