Humana appoints Noora Jayasekara as new CFO

Humana has today appointed Noora Jayasekara as new CFO of Humana and member of Group Management.

Currently, Noora Jayasekara holds the position as Group Finance Director at Humana, a position she has held since January 2018. Previously, Noora Jayasekara, who is 41, worked seven years as manager and consultant in accounting for the consultancy group EY. Noora Jayasekara holds a Master's degree in Economics with a major in Business Finance.

Noora Jayasekara is succeeding Humana's CFO Ulf Bonnevier, who previously has announced that he will be leaving Humana after the summer.

"I am very pleased to be able to present Noora Jayasekara as Humana's new CFO and member of our Group Management. Her combination of financial knowledge, good leadership skills and an incredible drive make her an exceptional match when it comes to the qualities and skills that Humana needs in a new CFO", says Rasmus Nerman, President and CEO of Humana.

"The fact that we were able to recruit internally to such an important position is also very satisfying. This means that we will not lose momentum in the important change work that is already going on, as Noora is already part of the process. I also see it as a proof of strength for Humana that we have this ability and capacity internally", says Rasmus Nerman.

"I am excited and is very much looking forward to take on this role and to continue working with Humana's competent finance team to fulfil the change work that we've already begun", says Noora Jayasekara.

Noora Jayasekara will start in her new role as CFO on September 1, 2020.
